Council adjourned last night and visited Beechwood Park in a body, the drawing card being the production of Mayor Stallcup's picture in fire.

The game of baseball yesterday between Maysville and Cincinnati colored teams resulted in favor of the home club by a score of 12 to 5. Ike McAllister made a home run.

If you want a "diamond" call and let me show you how cheap I can sell you a fine stone. We bought our "diamonds" before the advance, hence you can see understand why we can sell you cheaper than others.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

The suit of Auditor's Agent John J. O'Donnell v. Adams Express Co. was decided in the County Court yesterday by Judge Newell in favor of the Express Company. The case will be appealed to the Circuit Court, and from there will probably go to the Court of Appeals, before the matter is finally determined.

The fireworks at Beechwood last evening were all that was promised—and more. The set pieces were novel and interesting, while the bursting bombs filled the air with showers of many-colored fire, producing an effect truly grand. It is estimated that fully 2,000 persons witnessed the exhibition, most of them within the beautiful Park.

STOVE EXPLODED

And Lady Had Narrow Escape From Serious Injury

Mrs. Douglas McDowell had a narrow escape Saturday morning when her gasoline stove exploded. Had it not been for the presence of mind and timely action of her husband, who fortunately was at home, picking up the blazing stove and throwing it out of a window, there is no telling how serious matters might have been.

As it is no one was burned and the damage very small, except to the stove, which is a total wreck.

COLONEL WHITE BURLEY HAWKINS may or may not corner the present year's crop; but he's certainly entitled to a patent on his "movable limit" period for concluding the deal.

WHAT a capital stroke it would be for the striking book and job printers of Chicago to "Unionize" all the "scabs" who have taken their places. It would make a splendid addition to the hundreds of "blacksmiths" who already wear the Union Label.

SPEAKING of Envoy WITTE's claim that in the peace negotiations Russian diplomacy won a "victory." The Courier-Journal says—

"So let the world concede it. Let it go down in history as a victory for Russian diplomacy. Knowing herself to be beaten on the field Russia deserves all the credit that is to be attached to a proceeding whereby she raises up an issue under the shadow of which she may accept defeat with 'victory' on her lips. Diplomatic victories are about the only victories that fall to Russia. She would have been in Manchuria yet if she could have fought that issue with her diplomats instead of her soldiers and sailors. Today she has a diplomatic victory, while Japan has all she failed to secure by diplomacy. Russia has the victory of refusing to agree to pay the expenses of her drubbing, while Japan has pay in territory; she has Port Arthur and Dalm; she has supremacy in Manchuria, supremacy in Korea, supremacy on the Asian seas. More than that, she has the prestige of humbling a Power before which the world had stood in dread. She has the prestige of establishing herself as one of the first of the Nations that are to dominate the earth. She has the prestige of gloriously bulwarking her imperiled National existence. She has the prestige of military and naval genius, military and naval prowess, endurance, courage and patriotism second to no other people. She has the prestige of wise, shrewd and far-seeing statesmanship, and, not the least in importance, she has the prestige of a financial credit as sound as gold. In every one of these respects Japan has gained and Russia has lost."

WHAT's the difference between playing a sure-enough game of baseball and playing "practice" games on Sunday?

THE Louisville Times very truly remarks that about 400,000 men have died for the glory of the Czar, and yet the Czar has come out of the war with very little glory.

THE Editor of The Bourbon News has not only created a sensation, but has done an actual public service by his timely and pointed remarks on "Criminal Gossips." These creatures "Criminal Gossip" are not confined to any town or county. They seem to have a free hand everywhere. No character or position is secure from their vile and cowardly assaults. Neither age nor sex enjoys any immunity. Who are these offenders? Almost invariably they are the embittered and resentful victims of "ill-luck," the conscious "failures" of life. To "get even" with the world they must show that only the indecent, the vicious, the incapable and the beastly hold the passport to success. "Failure" is written all over the record of their own lives—and, often enough, something very much worse. Their only resource is to assail the man or the woman that succeeds; and especially if that success is achieved by honest arts. The "criminal gossip" proclaims his own incompetency by his attacks on the children of success. He carries no more weight in a community than a discharged servant or an utterly discredited "beat."

I have sold it continuously for sixteen years and have never made a change. My competitors are changing every year, which is proof that they are not satisfied with the flour they sell. The manufacturer of this flour writes me under date of August 3d as follows: "If you were pleased with Perfection last year, you will be more than satisfied with it now. We thought we had good wheat last season, but our wheat this season is the finest we have had for years." For a limited time I am going to sell this FINE FLOUR at the extremely low price of $5.00 Per Barrel Spot Cash.

At this price you should buy a supply for the season. In the Hays and Hays Hays I have no competition. The large and increasing demand for my famous RED CANVAS HAMS and BREAKFAST HAMS is proof of the superior quality of the meats. Buy only the STAR BRAND in RED CANVAS cured from selected young fat hogs specially for my trade. My PURE LARD is rendered from the same class of hogs and nothing better can be made. For summer lunches I have a full supply of everything in that line. I sell the famous "Beach Nut" Bacon and Dried Beef in glass. It is dino. Mothers Are Helped THEIR HEALTH RESTORED

Happiness of Thousands of Homes Due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's Advice.

A devoted mother seems to listen to every call of duty excepting the supreme one that tells her to guard her health, and before she realizes it some derangement of the female organs has manifested itself, and nervousness and irritability take the place of happiness and amiability.

Tired, nervous and irritable, the mother is unfit to care for her children, and her condition ruins the child's disposition and reacts upon herself. The mother should not be blamed, as she no doubt is suffering with backache, headache, bearing-down pains or displacement, making life a burden.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the unfailing cure for this condition. It strengthens the female organs and permanently cures all displacements and irregularities.

Such testimony as the following should convince women of its value:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I suffered for eight years with ovarian troubles. I was nervous, tired and irritable, and it did not seem as though I could stand it any longer, as I had five children to care for. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and it has entirely cured me. I cannot thank you enough for your letter of advice and for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me.—Mrs. Ph. Hoffman, 100 Hiram Street, Brooklyn, N. Y."

Mrs. Pinkham advises sick women free. Address, Lynn, Mass.

The Battle of the Bugs!

[It's full fifteen years since the following was "refused"—unhappy years! The intestinal warfare faintly outlined is yet on, unseen but felt, with no sign of truce nor shadow of ending. Our hidden foes have been unearthed by thousands; the germ-in-side has become a menace to riot, and yet mortality hopefully keeps within statutory bounds, owing doubtless to stubborn Adamic methods, the pardonable misfit of immature science, and the marvelous strategy of our defending leucocytes. Further movements will be viewed critically and accurately reported.—Ben Z.]

For obvious reasons the every-day man doesn't bother himself with deep sea soundings of scientists. The problem of meat and bread takes precedence of the "missing link" unless indeed it be some truant link of appetizing sausage: "ills we have" occupy most men rather than "those we know not of." When, however, some patient sub-soiler turns up something affecting our material interests, springs a theory disturbing our physical ease or soul's repose, the dullest are wont to become observant.

And there seems food for thought in recent developments by an Austrian Professor with sesqui-pedalian name. It isn't long since lovers of pork were startled into Hebrewic abstinence by the showing that an honest pound of average bologna might chance to contain enough deadly trichina to stiffen a regiment of unclean Gentiles. This was the reverse of assuring in view of the fact that in the scientific as in the social world there's often but a logical step from the hog to the human, and vice versa.

And it soon came that bacteria, a sort of humanized trichina, with modern improvements in the way of questionable heads and more equivocal tails, were at the bottom of it all absolutely. Never mind ache or pain now but it's the gnawing of some particular bacillus, making of the human form Divine a very "Diet of Worms." And standing proven is the fact that benighted men and women, together with their innocent babies, have for all time been fattening, cross-breeding and otherwise improving and multiplying the fool things upon good catnip tea and paregoric, instead of trapping and sousing them headlong into corrosive sublimate or carbolic acid.

But "the world do move," and all this, wonderful and startling though it be, is but introductory to the mysteries of our animated Venetians. Now comes the German Professor with the long name and like the meddlesome soldier who wouldn't let the enemy rest when he was quiet, unearths more terrible things for the plaguing of the human corpus. He tells us in substance that bacteria and the ultimate formative cells in the human body are opposed to each other in an endless struggle for mastery—the one destructive, the other constructive. According to his showing there are within us "blue spirits and gray," good or benign parasites, and "demnition bud" or malignant ones.

He examined several cases of disease—some recovering, others proving fatal—with the view of testing the truth of a theory that recovery in the cases was due to the destruction of the pestiferous microbe by the avenging phagocyte! Not to detail, he claims to have witnessed, under the microscope, a pitched Battle of the Bugs, in which various entomological nationalities were engaged—leucocytes, streptococci, microphagi, macrophagi, &c., the latter having but one "i" and inferentially a species of cyclops.

I think I don't quite understand the plan of this unique engagement—the distribution of forces and the peculiar tactics. But the leucocytes seemed on the side of recovery—on one side in the fight; hence I shall always favor the leucocyte! I never saw a leucocyte to know it—may never do so; but henceforth I'll tread lightly on "bugs and sich" lest I crush a leucocyte—an angel unaware!

'Tis said it reads almost like a romance, this mimic warfare between the invading microbe and the defending leucocyte! Just so! Let us devoutly pray that it may be only a romance! And it's now bacteria hasten divorce. For that is quite German, you know; Spirilli of homicide follow, of course. For that is quite German, you know; Microbes of lying will be on the tongue, And melon-chief will be found in the young. The germ of drink be seen at the bung. For that is so German, you know. At last when in Satan's house we'll be, For that is quite German, you know; We'll use sulphur vapors to kill bacilli. For that too is German, you know; Or if we to Heaven instead emigrate Our harps, ere used, will freely fumigate. Our wings sterilize as we pass the Golden Gate. For that's so very German, you know.

And has it come to this! Is the human form, of whose graces so much has been said and sung, after all only debatable ground, ante mortem for opposing factions of the insect tribe? Do we really live only as one valorous bug proves the stronger in a wrangle for supremacy, upon a plane with the clamor oyster? Where's the young Doctor who daily rants over peach bloom and velvety cheeks, that he doesn't refute the hideous theory, or brain the heartless projector on the spot!

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

THE STATE CONVENTION

Five Hundred Delegates Expected at the Meeting of Christian Church

Basement of Edifice Being Converted Into An Attractive Dining-Hall

The annual State Convention of the Christian Church will meet in Maysville September 25th to 28th and the local congregation is quite busy with active preparation for this big event. The attendance promises to be very large, running up to several hundred. The pick and flower of the brotherhood will come and the gathering will in some respects be a notable one. This denomination is very strong in Kentucky and the personnel of its membership ranks as favorable as that of any other in the state. Its pioneer preachers were remarkable men of much force, learning and character, who left an indelible impress upon the times in which they lived, and the light which they left behind them still shines upon the paths of men as brightly as the sun in the old Kentucky home.

The singing will be conducted by a professional leader, assisted by a large chorus, and it will be worth one's while to attend and enjoy it. There will be anthems and solos and congregational songs and special music, that will fill the heart and inspire the soul.

The sessions will be both day and night and freely open to all who wish to attend. The convention will be largely missionary in character and will therefore interest all religious persons. This will prove a splendid opportunity of seeing and hearing many godly men and women of state and national prominence. Some of the most gifted pulpits orators in the Christian Church are down on the program and their coming is assured.

To find homes for all of the delegates is a big task, but Kentucky hospitality may always be counted upon to find the way. All of the local denominations in the city have generously signified their willingness to assist in providing homes for the delegates, and some public spirited citizens of no special church affiliation will assist in entertaining the visitors. It is conservatively estimated that about five hundred delegates will want homes, and a special committee is giving this matter methodical attention.

It has been planned to furnish dinner to delegates and visitors during the convention in the basement of the church, which is now being arranged for this purpose and which when completed will make a fine dining-room. About three hundred persons can eat at one time and the service will be prompt and satisfactory. This basement dining-hall will be handsomely decorated and will prove one of the most attractive features of the convention.

The Mayslick Christian Church has asked and been granted the privilege of feeding the convention the first day of its session. This will be known as "Mayslick Day," and they will have exclusive charge of the dining-room basement. It goes without saying that "there is a great day coming" and if you miss "Mayslick Day" you will never regret it but once and that will be always.

Mr. Charles H. Himes, aged 26, and Miss Irena B. Irwin, aged 24, both of Lewis county, were married yesterday in the County Clerk's office, Judge C. D. Newell officiating.

SOME BIG FISH

Jo. Kenney's Daddy-in-Law's Catch in Way Off California

A California paper tells of a monster fish caught by Mr. L. G. Murphy of Converse, Ind., father-in-law of Mr. Jo. A. Kenney formerly of this city. Here's the story:

"The Jewish record was broken again this morning and now stands at 436 pounds. L. G. Murphy of Converse, Ind., one of the most enthusiastic anglers who have visited the island, and who has recently come here from Tarpon, Tex., wearing a medal for having accomplished the greatest feat in fishing ever performed on the Gulf in the taking of 24 tarpons in one day, is now the proud holder of the world's record for the largest fish ever taken with rod and reel.

"With Mr. Murphy were Ulrich J. Marchand, Gilmonr Sharp and George Michaelis, and when Mr. Marchand pulled in a monstrous big bass which afterward was found to weigh 300 pounds, the party thought themselves in great luck, but concluded to make another try, which resulted in the biggest catch yet. The record was held by T. Perkins of Los Angeles, who on the 3d inst. took a fish weighing 428 pounds. Mr. Murphy was but forty-three minutes in landing the monster."

HANDS CRACKED AND PEELED

Suffered for One Year—Water Caused Agony, Heat Intense Pain—Grew Worse Under Doctors—Could Not Do Any Housework.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

"About a year ago my hands began to crack and peel. I tried many remedies, but they grew worse all the time. At last they became so sore that it was impossible for me to do my housework. If I put my hands in water, I was in agony for hours; and if I tried to cook over the stove, the heat caused intense pain. I consulted a doctor, but his prescriptions were utterly useless. I gave him up and tried another, but without the least satisfaction. About six weeks ago I got my first relief when I purchased Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After using them for a week, I found to my great delight that my hands were beginning to feel much better, the deep cracks began to heal up and stop running, and to-day my hands are entirely well, the one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment being all that I used. (signed) Mrs. Minnie Drew, 18 Dana St., Roxbury Mass."

With the exception of a single portion of the text the draft of the Russo-Japanese Treaty of Peace was completed Saturday at Portsmouth. It is possible the treaty may be signed today. President Roosevelt is arranging to entertain the Envoys at luncheon at Oyster Bay prior to their departure for home. After the treaty is signed the President will issue a formal statement in regard to his connection with the negotiations.

The Greenwood will be down today from upper parts.

The Hoxie, on her first trip to this section of the Ohio with empties, tied up at Cincinnati.

For the first time in some three or four months the river has gone so low that packets have given up trying to reach Pittsburgh. The Keystone State was forced to cut off at Wheeling on her last trip and send her passengers by rail to the city.

The coal fleets in the Pittsburgh harbor are increasing rapidly in size and rivermen say that when the next rise comes they will be able to move a record breaking shipment for the South. There are still plenty of empties in the pools and mining is being carried on steadily.
